- What did you learn from attending the Fair?

- Comments Included:

- History Majors have more opportunities than I thought.
- That you should start early and look for job openings of interest.
- There are many opportunities that I really never considered in the work force. This offered a lot of information for me.
- Talking to employees is harder than it looks!
- The fair really helped me see what it will be like when I go to get a full time job upon graduation.
- Impressive resumes are a must
- Wasn't interested in a lot of the companies
- Sometimes they ask challenging questions. Also, it is important to put a face with the name.

- How to talk with Employers
- How to conduct initial interviews.
- To speak with all reps even though they do not seem to represent your chosen career field.
- I learned a lot about management programs and a variety of new companies I did not know much about before.
- I can apply my major to lots of positions.
- The people are very approachable.
- Learned more about each company and about how they run their internships.
- To keep my options open and have a foot in the door with some companies.
- Job Opportunities(2)
- Networking, preparedness, great communication skills
- That the fair is for business majors.
- There are many opportunities in various areas.
- The job opportunities and the various jobs within those jobs.
- Smile, listen, relax, be open minded, be honest
- That you have to sell yourself
- What it takes to be involved with the FBI and the IRS
- That employers want to talk to you. They need you as much as you need them.
- There are more local employers than I realized
- There are a lot of opportunities.
- There are a lot more opportunities than at first glance.
- Time management (it's difficult to talk with all the employers).
- I picked up some info for the Peace Corps.
- Employer contact information
- That there are few people who have positions for Biomedical engineers/other related topics. Only 3 employers. (Science Museum, FBI, NAVSEA).
- There are a large number of job opportunities.
- There are opportunities everywhere.
- That I need to get an internship.
- That the employers are trying to impress you as much as you are trying to impress them.
- Need more of a business education.
