Rights of LGBT Students at Longwood University

Non-discrimination Statement

Longwood University, an agency of the Commonwealth of Virginia, is an equal opportunity institution of higher learning. Longwood promotes equal opportunity for all prospective and current students and employees. Longwood University will not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, political affiliation, sex, sexual orientation, age or disability status.

Sexual Misconduct Policy

Longwood University does not tolerate rape and/or sexual assault in any form, whether by a stranger or by an acquaintance, whether against females or males.

Statement Regarding the Intolerance of Bias Incidents

Longwood University seeks to foster a safe environment conducive to learning and the free exchange of ideas. In accordance with all the policies residing under the Judicial Code of Conduct Standards and Regulations and the Honor Code of Conduct Standards and Regulations, any offense motivated by bias will not be tolerated. An offense motivated by bias is any offense wherein the accused intentionally selects political affiliation, sexual orientation, gender, age, marital status, or inclusion in any group protected by law.
