Cancellation Policy

The requestor is required to give the the Assistant Director, Fitness and Informal Recreation, an advanced notice of at least 24 hours if unable to attend the group session. If a 24 hour notice is not received, the requestor will forfeit the group session.

The group instructor is not permitted to cancel a group session unless it is due to illness or an emergency situation. If the group instructor must cancel, they are required to give the Assistant Director, Fitness and Informal Recreation, an advanced notice of at least 24 hours.

Tardiness

The requestor and group instructor are expected to begin the group session at the scheduled start time. If the requestor is tardy to the group session, that time will be deducted from their group session time (i.e., if 10 minutes late, only 50 minutes of the session remain). The group instructor will wait 15 minutes after the scheduled start time after which the entire session will be forfeited.

The group instructor is not permitted to arrive late to the scheduled group session. If the group instructor is tardy, that time will be used at that group session or added to a different group session (determined by the requestor). If the group instructor fails to show within 15 minutes of the scheduled start time, the requestor should contact the Assistant Director, Fitness and Informal Recreation, and a make-up session will be scheduled.

Refunds

Refunds will only be given to group sessions if there is a medically documented reason. If the requestor is unhappy with their group instructor, they should contact the Assistant Director, Fitness and Informal Recreation, immediately so that other arrangements can be made.

I have read, been given the opportunity to ask questions and understand the policies and procedures of Longwood University's Private Group Fitness Program.
