

Crime Prevention Specialists

The crime prevention specialists shall coordinate and prepare crime prevention programs for the students, visitors and faculty/staff of Longwood University. This person shall be trained in Crime Prevention through Environmental Design (CPTED) to look at preplanning of new construction and renovations of existing buildings from an all hazards safety aspects. The Crime Prevention Specialists shall conduct safety surveys of campus buildings and residential properties when requested in order that recommendations can be made to help improve or enhance safety and security of these buildings. If you need to have a presentation or a safety survey performed please contact Lt. Ray Ostrander at 434-395-2848 or email ostranderr@longwood.edu