

CALL FOR PAPERS

LONGWOOD UNIVERSITY
PRESENTS

THE TWELFTH ANNUAL

MEETING IN THE MIDDLE:

"ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE": THE DRAMA OF THE MIDDLE AGES

An Undergraduate Research Conference in Medieval and Renaissance Studies

6–7 April 2018

Longwood's Medieval Undergraduate Conference has been bringing together students from institutions across the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic to share and showcase their research in Medieval and Renaissance topics. Past conferences have shown the diversity and richness of these fields, and so we again invite students and faculty from the many different disciplines in Late Antique, Medieval, and Renaissance studies to the literal "middle", Farmville, Virginia, where we will again find common ground.

Students may present 20 minute-papers on history, literature, art history, drama, music, philosophy, religion, or any other discipline dealing with the medieval or early modern eras.

This conference includes two distinguished plenary speakers: Dr. David Klausner, Emeritus Professor of English at the University of Toronto and specialist in early English literature and drama; and literary historian Dr. Mark Chambers, Research Associate with the Records of Early English Drama, Northeast (REED-NE) Project at the University of Durham, England.

Please submit abstracts of 250 words, including your name, university, and paper title to:
Dr. Larissa Tracy: tracylc@longwood.edu or Dr. Steven Isaac: isaacsw@longwood.edu.

Deadline for proposals is January 25, 2018.
