

Farmville Area Bus (FAB) FYI & ETIQUETTE

Just a few reminders for using the FAB. The FAB will begin running on Saturday (August 23). There will be two buses running during morning peak hours (7:15 am to 10:45 am), one is running Lancer Park to campus and the other running Lancer Park to campus to Longwood Village apartments to campus and back to Lancer Park.

When riding the bus ... please remember:

- ❖ Show your student id to the driver when entering the bus. Passengers without an id will be charged $0.25.
- ❖ Pick ups occur on the right side of the bus. The driver will not stop for passengers that are opposite the door or needing to cross the street
- ❖ Announce NEXT STOP when you are approaching the area that you need to exit the bus
- ❖ PLAN AHEAD – passengers are greatest in the mornings from 7:45 to 10:45, with most commuters using the bus 15 minutes prior to class
- ❖ DO NOT eat or drink on the bus
- ❖ DO NOT use profanity
- ❖ DO NOT disrespect the driver or other passengers (the driver, the FAB, nor your peers has anything to do with the hours, routes, or parking)
- ❖ BE patient and remember you are using public transportation
- ❖ The buses are equipped for 20 seated passengers and roughly 10-12 standing passengers. You may not always be a seated passenger but you can still ride.

Always use the handle rails, the buses are equipped for standing passengers!!!

Student handbook policies do apply on the bus and Judicial charges are in effect.
