

Oral Sex

(Originally done in the middle of safe sex week)

The Program:

This is a fake orgasm contest. Student judges rate contestants on a scale of one to ten. At the end of the “orgasm” the judges hold up cards with their rating, and the host/hostess keeps track of the score. There are four categories and each judge represents one of the four. (Originality, Juiciness, Believability and Overall Performance) At the end of the program STD info and condoms are passed out, along with the prizes.

Need:

- 4 student judges
- Cards numbering from 1-10 (one set for each judge)
- Cards printed with funny phrases (Oh Baby!! What’s your #?.....etc)
- Poster Board with the 4 categories written on them
- STD info
- Condoms
- Prizes (The R.A. who came up with this program gave out Herbal Essence Shampoo, $25 cash prize, different coupons and gift certificates.

Other Considerations:

Set ground rules at the beginning so that students don’t take things too far.
