Homework guidelines for Dr. Poplin:

1. Homework should be neat and readable.
2. Use clean-edged paper. Do not use paper ripped out of a notebook.
3. Work each problem on a separate sheet of paper. If a particular problem is very short (less than 10 lines) then you may work another problem on the same sheet if at least 5 blank lines are between the problems.
4. Write the page number, problem number, and problem on the page.
5. Do not write on the back of your paper.
6. Show all necessary work (neat and readable).
7. Include the honor pledge, or the shortened form:
   “I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this assignment.”
   and your signature.
8. Circle or clearly define your final answers.
9. Neatness is very important.
10. Explain answers. Numerical answers without units or explanation is not a finished answer and may not receive full credit.
11. Dr. Poplin reserves the right to take credit away from papers that do not follow these guidelines.
