 Distributed by: Advocates for Youth
 Date: 2000
 Length: 16 minutes 20 seconds
 Grades:
 To purchase: visit www.advocatesforyouth.org
 Description: Advocates for Youth and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte sponsor study tours to the Netherlands, Germany, and France to explore the reasons behind these nations' much lower rates of teenage pregnancy, birth, and sexually transmitted diseases. Teens & Sex in Europe: A Story of Rights, Respect & Responsibility, narrated by Mariette Hartley, provides a fascinating glimpse into the sexual health attitudes of Dutch, German, and French teens and their parents and into the attitudes of government officials, educators, and health care providers. European and U.S. teens speak their minds about protecting themselves within sexual relationships. All of this is against a background of funny, frank media clips drawn from larger multimedia campaigns to reduce HIV infections and unintended pregnancy.

 Distributed by: Aquarius Health Care Videos
 Date: 1999
 Length: 38 minutes
 Grades: unknown
 To purchase: visit www.aquariusproductions.org
 Description: Let's get the conversation started! Designed for parents, caregivers and young people to watch together, Talking Together addresses the critical need for sex education for developmentally disabled young people by providing step-by-step information and direction. Real life parents, their DD young adult sons and daughters, and educators demonstrate practical models to empower parents and caregivers to arm our young people with life saving knowledge and strategies. A detailed sex education segment includes: reproductive anatomy, pregnancy, contraception, and disease prevention. The mysterious, often elusive world of social skills is considered along with the desire for friendship, companionship, romance and relationships. Public/private behavior is also covered.
