Video Resources:

Specific Videos:

- Abstinence First: Teen Birth Control Decisions
 Distributed by: Human Relations Media
 Date: 2002
 Length: 25 minutes
 To purchase: visit www.hrmvideo.com
 Description: This video, available in two versions depending on your school district's policy, advocates abstinence as the best and safest choice for all teens, but also goes on to describe the birth control choices that are currently available, including barrier methods, natural, chemical and surgical methods. Information is provided on the method's effectiveness, whether it prevents sexually transmitted infections, details on any important side effects teens should be aware of, how it works and how it can be obtained. Version A emphasizes that an individual's decision to become sexually active should only be made in the context of marriage. Version B does not state a point of view regarding an individual's decision to have or abstain from premarital sex. Includes Teacher's Resource Guide and student handouts. Closed-captioned.
- Considering Your Options
 Distributed by: National Education Association Health Information Network
 Date: 2000
 Length: 23 minutes
 Grades: 7-12
 To purchase: visit <http://www.neahin.org/programs/reproductive/cyo/> or contact NEA
 Description: An educational video about contraceptive alternatives, including condoms, birth control pills, Depo-Provera, Norplant, and emergency contraception. Teens talk about their feelings and experiences with sexual activity during an open forum setting.
- Hope Is Not A Method (5th edition)
 Distributed by: United Learning
 Date: 2002
 Length: 19 minutes
 Grades: 9-12
 To purchase: visit www.unitedlearning.com
 Description: Like its best-selling predecessors, this fifth-edition of the popular video program provides women and men with a brief overview of all the methods of contraception available in the United States at this time. Set in a family planning clinic, several counselors discuss the various methods with their clients. Both over-the-counter and prescription methods are described. Clear visuals help the audience see how each contraceptive method is used correctly. The primary message in the video is that every method of birth control is most effective when used correctly and consistently.

- All of Us: Talking Together: Sex Education for people with Developmental Disabilities

Distributed by: Aquarius Health Care Videos
 Date: 1999
 Length: 38 minutes
 Grades: unknown

To purchase: visit www.aquariusproductions.org

Description: Let's get the conversation started! Designed for parents, caregivers and young people to watch together, Talking Together addresses the critical need for sex education for developmentally disabled young people by providing step-by-step information and direction. Real life parents, their DD young adult sons and daughters, and educators demonstrate practical models to empower parents and caregivers to arm our young people with life saving knowledge and strategies. A detailed sex education segment includes: reproductive anatomy, pregnancy, contraception, and disease prevention. The mysterious, often elusive world of social skills is considered along with the desire for friendship, companionship, romance and relationships. Public/private behavior is also covered.

The Virginia Department of Education does not endorse or promote resources and materials on these draft pages. The list provides information available online, in print, and by telephone – some are targeted for adults, some for teenagers.
