- Tale of Two Teens, DVD with Curriculum Guide, Cinema Guild, 2005 (35 minutes). Documentary about AIDS pandemic in Africa as seen through the eyes of an American and South African teenager featuring the music of the Dave Matthews Band and U2.
- Women Like You (VHS), Co-produced by Pfizer and NAACP, 2004 (20-minutes). This fast-moving video addresses issues specifically related to African-American women and HIV. Physicians, educational specialists, and women infected with HIV share honest, true life experiences about developing relationships, questions women should ask early on in relationships, testing services, barriers to people getting tested, and strategies for dealing with the HIV disease. The graphics strongly enhance the messages.

Homework: Panel members were informed that the School Health Advisory Boards Report will be available online through the VCHETRC shortly for review. And e-mail with the link will be sent next week. The deadline for this "homework" review is December 19, 2007.
