The Vice Rector called the meeting to order in advance of dinner in Radcliff Hall, saying that everyone’s thoughts were with Rector Ron White, who was unable to make the meeting for personal reasons. President Reveley gave brief remarks about enrollment, policy developments at the state and federal level, and recent philanthropic commitments, noting that soon the University would be in a position to announce an historic gift from former President Janet Greenwood to fund innovative and creative ideas regarding student development and academic initiatives. Friendly discussion and conversation followed over supper.
